J. A. Cunningham is being well cared for at the Hotel Lieu, El Paso, Tex., and is recovering from typhoid fever. His son Alma is up from the republic to care for the patient.

There are many coyotes in the hills to the north and east of the city, and their howling may be heard every night as they come down for forays on chicken yards and garbage cans.

Word has been received by the Sait Lake officers of the Stude-baker Manufacturing company, that the company had received a grand prize at the world's fair for its goods.

Director General Whitaker wires Hoyt Sherman that Utah has taken two more medals at the world's fair. Mr. Whitaker has arranged for the disposal ceally of the state building furniture when the fair ends.

Fish and Game Commissioner John Sharp has been out on the sloughs and ponds watching for violations of the law, but so far finds that hunters are, as far as can be seen, minded to keep within legal limits.

Contractors report a scarcity of buff brick in the Salt Lake market, owing to the fact that local brick burners have been unfortunate in getting the suitable color; so that recourse has been had to Provo manufacturers.

Dr. Lorenzo W. Snow has been chosen vice president of the Jefferson Medical college Alumni association for the ensuing year. The doctor graduated from Utah University in 1883, and from the nedical college in Philadelphia in 1886.

Prof. Bicknell Young, whose Sait Lake friends know him best as B. S. Young, the baritone, will be in Salt Lake on Nov. 13, and will lecture at the Theater on Christian Science. Mr. Young has given up music entirely for the lecture platform. J. Richardson, a Light and Railway employe, caught his right little finger in the machinery Saturday afternoon, and so mangled the member that it had to be amputated. Leonard Compton, the railway barn badly slashed his instep with an axe, Rector P. J. Darnellle of St. Peter's church, Carson City, is in the city and preached last night, in St. Mark's cathedral, from the text, "On this rock will I build my church," etc. His theme was unity of Christian people, and said that the church was in its broadest sense composed of all Christian people, without particular regard to sects denominational doctrine. Rector Dar-neille is en route home from attendance on the Boston convention.

Tenight the wise will hold onto their buttons and the prudent will remove their gates and place them securely in the family closet to await the passing of the ancient and not always honorabl night of Hallowe'en. SEELY'S SHEEP WIN.

Mount Pleasant Man's Thoroughbreds Bring Him World's Fair Honors.

Mt. Pleasant Pyramid: John H. Seely's bunch of thoroughbred Rambouillet sheep reached home from their world's fair trip last night. Sixteen ribbons were won by them at the big exposition, one first, five second, and 0 others. The sheep, with one excep-ion, were all natives of Mt. Pleasant. The sheep were not properly handled after they left this city and persons quainted with them who saw them on fair grounds say they were far be low their normal appearance when judged. However, Mr. Seely is satisfied with the showing made. It is a great distinction to have one's stock udged the best in the world in such a ontest, and Mr. Seely, his town, coun ty and state, cought to feel satisfied and proud of such an achievement. Mr. Seely is certainly entitled to much commendation for the efforts which have brought this desirable end.

Mr. Seely shipped another carload of als sheep to New Mexico this week. This bunch makes about 800 he has sold this year, which took about all he has. It seems strange that out of the entire 800 only 56 have been sold in this state. They have all brought top prices, where they have been sold.

MONEY IN LUCERN SEED.

Alfalfa Good as Gold Mine to the People of Emery County.

Emery County Progress: Seed buyers have placed a sum of money on deposit at Emery to buy every pound of ucern seed raised at that place this year, offering 8 cents at pre-ant, or more if any other buyer will beat this figure. Some lucern is threshing as high as 10 and 11 bushels to the acre, and some farmers have grown as much as 200 and 300 bushels. At 8 a pound, lucern seed is now worth $6,46 a bushel there and some individual growers will take in close to $2,000 for this crop alone this season. The success of the Emery people in this one product is causing other people in Emery county to open their eyes a bit. -

SUNDAY FUNERALS.

Gertrude Marie Jespersen and Norman Moncrieff Laid to Rest.

Solemnly impressive were the services held yesterday afternoon over the remains of little Gertrude Marie Jesperson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Jespersen of the Fifth ward. The obsequies occurred in the ward meetinghouse. Bishop S. M. T. Seddon presiding, and the ward choir and members of the local musical fraternity, in which Mr. Jespersen is quite prominent, furnished the music. As an opening hymn the choir sang, "Cease, ye fond parents, cease to weep." Prayer was offered by Elder William A. Cowan. The choir further sang, "Though deep'ning trials throng your way." The speakers were Elders S. H. Harrow, Joshua Midgley, George F. Gibbs, George E. Burbidge and Bishop Seddon, all of whom spoke the bereaved, and referred to the lovable disposition and gentle character of the deceased. During the services Miss Signid Pedersen rendered with much feeling, "The Day is Ended," and mem-bers of the State band and Theater orchestra played several selections. The closing hymn was, "Unveil Thy Bo-som," and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Alex, Buchanan, Jr There was a splendid attendance and many beautiful floral emblems. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of Charles Norman, adopted son of Charles D. and Angle Moncrieff, were held yesterday afternoon from the family resi-dence, 346 west Seventh South street, Bishop S. M. T. Seddon presiding. Members of the Fifth ward choir furnished the music, and the opening prayer was offered by Elder Georgé E. Burbidge, after which remarks of a comforting nature were made by Elder S. H. Harrow and Bishop Seddon. Both praised the foster parents of the child for the kindness shown it, and the extreme care taken of it during its illness. The benediction was pronounced by Elder William A. Cowan. William A. VALTON M. PRATT SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Wife Makes Some Decidedly Unpleasant Charges Against Her Inhuman Husband.

HEARTLESS ACTS OF SPOUSE

Left Wife Sick and Suffering to Apply To County Commissioners for Charitable Aid.

Cruelty, desertion and failure to support are the grounds for divorce set out in a complaint filed in the district court by Zina E. Jenkins Pratt against Valton M. Pratt. It is alleged that the parties were married in this city on June 26, 1895, and that defendant deserted his wife on March 18, 1903, and has failed to provide for her and their three children for several years and has compelled them to apply to the county commissioners for assistance. It is alleged that defendant has fre towards his wife and has expressed the desire to get rid of her. In July, 1899 when plaintiff was very sick she asked him to send for a doctor. He promised to do so but instead he went up town and purchased some medicine himself without consulting a physician and gave it to plaintiff, causing her to grow much worse and had she continued to take the medicine she claims that I would have killed her.

When she was ill again in July, 1900, she claims that he left her alone without medicine or food for two days, after baving cursed her in a cruel manner. In March, 1901, she alleges that he struck her a violent blow with his fist and cursed her. Again in June of the same year just after the birth of their child she says that he threw her vio-

Defendants in Action. Georgia A. Kendall and her infant daughter, Mary C. Kendall, by her guardian ad litem, have filed two damage sults in the district court against the Campbell Building company for personal injuries received by them on Sept. 2, when they were crushed by the falling of the fence in front of the federal building. Mrs. Kendall asks judgment for $5,200 and her daughter asks judgment for $1,000. The defendant company has charge of the construction on the new federal building and as the city has disclaimed any responsibility for the accident the suits have been filed against the company.

Suit for divorce has been filed in the district court by Robert M. Wilkinson against Theresa M. Wilkinson, on the ground of desertion. It is alleged that the parties were married in this city on Aug. 28, 1898, and ever since Sept. 21, 1900, defendant has deserted plaintiff, and has been "keeping company" with one J. L. Brady. Suit has been filed in the district court by James E. Beveridge against A. J. Orem and Walter C. Orem to recover for the sale of the Trade Dollar group of claims in Idaho by defendants to the Trade Dollar company. It is alleged that defendants agreed to pay him that amount for his services in making
